AN OCEAN DISASTER.

THE STEAMER BORUSSIA ABANDONED AT SEA.

Most of the Passengers Supposed to be Lost—Arrival of the Survivors.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Part of the crew of the British steamer Borussia from Liverpool for New Orleans is now being landed at Queenstown by the British ship M. Allowdal from Bussein. The Borussia was abandoned in a sinking condition on the 2d instant.

LATER.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Part of the crew of the steamer Borussia landed at Queenstown to-day by the ship Mallondale, consisted of the chief engineer, doctor, boatswain and six seamen. They were picked up on the 5th instant, in an open boat by the Mallondale. The Borussia had one hundred and eighty passengers, of which number one hundred and five embarked at Liverpool, and seventy-five at Corunna. The crew numbered fifty-four men. After leaving Corunna on the 24th of November, she experienced terrific weather and sprang a leak on 1st of December, and the severity of the weather increasing, she was abandoned on the 2d about three hundred and fifty miles southwest of Fayal. The Captain and second officer remained on the sinking steamer. The crew and passengers embarked in eleven boats. The nine survivors have no hopes for the other boats leaving before they separated. They saw one boat capsized drowning all its occupants.

From the Indian Country.

LOS PINOS AGENCY, Dec. 23.—Chief Ouray informs the Commission that the Indians have accepted his ultimatum. Commissioner Hatch is ready to leave with the prisoners, but is compelled to await the arrival of Sowerick, who is on his way from Grand River to accompany the chiefs to Washington as the representative of the White River Utes. Jack was also selected by Ouray to represent that tribe, but his heart fails him and he declines to go, fearing arrest. Jack's change is attributed, by Chief Ouray, to Mormon influence. Jack has decided to quit the country and join Sitting Bull. He informed Chief Ouray that he was a man with carbines and plenty of ammunition, and proposed to fight.

Major Hatch will probably start on the 25th with the Indian prisoners. They will be under a military guard detailed from Fort Garland.

A Fair Claim.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 23.—At a meeting of the Farragut Association last evening, a committee consisting of B. S. Osborn, President of the National Farragut Association, William Simmons, Secretary of the meeting were appointed to visit Washington and to urge the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs to press the matter by introducing the bill authorizing the payment to officers and men composing the Farragut fleet as a bounty for the destruction of the enemy's vessels below New Orleans of the sum of $143,643.74, the balance of $268,600, decreed by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

Afghanistan News.

LONDON, Dec 23.—The Viceroy, of India, telegraphs to-day, as follows: General Bright reports the continued advance of the reinforcements. All is quiet at Perzeron and convoys are passing thence to Jagdaluck, Kugianes are quiet.

A despatch from General Roberts dated Caoul, December 19th, says: "Slight skirmishes took place on the 18th instant, during which one or two principal Afghan leaders were killed. Our loss was one killed and two wounded."

Snow fell here during the night but is disappearing.

Going Through a Burning Bridge.

GALVESTON, Texas, December 23.—A special from Denver to the News says: "The freight train on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad fell through the burning bridge near Durant station yesterday. The locomotive passed over in safety, but the tender and twenty-two cars were wrecked and burned. Mike Shelly, the fireman, fell into the fire and was burned to death. Brakeman Abernethy was slightly injured.

The Maine Muddle.

AUGUSTA, Me., December 23.—At a meeting of the Republican State Committee and prominent Republicans from various parts of the State held at Senator Blaine's residence last evening, the following committee was appointed to advise and co-operate with the Republican members of the legislature. Hon. L. M. Morrill, Hon. Nelson Dingley, Colonel J. E. Heath, Colonel I. W. Spaulding, Captain G. A. Boutelle, Colonel J. L. Richards, and Alden Sprague.

The Fire Record.

READING, Pa., Dec. 23.—The warehouse, machine shop and a part of the foundry of the extensive hardware works of Rick Bro.'s was destroyed by fire this morning. Less $45,000. Total insurance on the buildings $25,00.

A Sportman Dying.

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 23.—Colonel McDaniel, the veteran turfman, is very ill with pneumonia.

A Noted Palace Damaged.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—A Rome dispatch reports the fire on Sunday in the Sforza Cesarine palace caused considerable damage. Some valuable works are destroyed.

Foreign Affairs.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Charles S. Parnell, addressing a crowd at Queenstown previous to his departure for New York by the steamer Scythia yesterday said he hoped that one of the results of his visit to the United States would be to show that the hearts of the Americans would beat warmly toward Ireland. He said if Mr. Michael Davitt was put on trial, or if repressive measures were introduced in the House of Commons before the 1st of March next, when he intended to return, he would return immediately.

Two hundred and eighty emigrants have left Treviss and Udine, Italy, for America.

A dispatch to the Times from Calcutta says: "The ex-Ameer Yakoob Khan has arrived at Meerut. He is confined under military and police guards, but it is doubtful whether he will be kept there long, as the proximity of Meerut to Delhi and to other centers of Mussulman tradition renders it an inexpedient place for the safe custody of Mahommedan state prisoners."

Mud-Cut to be Flanked.

Asheville Citizen.

Colonel Thad. Coleman and Major Wilson have determined upon a plan by which the difficulties hitherto encountered at Mud-Cut are to be flanked, whenever it shall be found impracticable to pass that point. At the Eastern end a turn-table is to be placed on the main track, the train to be thus passed upon a track which will run around the point to the left of the cut and again come upon the track upon the upper side. The turn-table is necessary to avoid a too-abrupt curve, and the transfer of a train would not cause a delay of more than fifteen or twenty minutes.

LATE NEWS NOTES.

The liabilities of Thomas Neill, the missing cattle dealer, of Peoria, Ills., are believed to be $400,000. Detectives are now on his trial.

Victor Lacorte has been found guilty at New Orleans of the murder of police officer Lampage last July, but "without capital punishment."

Henry Williams, chief officer of the steamship New York, at New Orleans, was killed Saturday by falling into the hold of that vessel.

In a melee at Sherman, Texas, between rowdies and police, two men named Mitchell and Elliott were shot, the former fatally.

Four car loads of iron ore, mined from the foot of Lookout mountain, on the outskirts of Chattanooga, Tenn., are shipped daily to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

No less than 3,400 Philadelphia girls sang songs to Gen. Grant Saturday, and gave him bouquets. And yet they say he is not happy, and even accuse him of wanting a third term.

Colonel F. M. Lavender, of Tennessee, who commanded the Twentieth Tennessee regiment in the Confederate army, died at Franklin, in that State, last week.

Governor Bishop, of Ohio, President Clements, of the Cincinnati Southern railroad, and others were in Atlanta, Georgia, Saturday in the interest of that road.

Wm. McKee, senior proprietor of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, died suddenly of heart disease, about 1 o'clock Saturday morning, aged sixty-four years.

Max Hess, a German of bad character, who was hired by Frederick C. Werner, of Long Island, N. Y., assaulted Werner's wife last Saturday, stabbed her fatally in the neck, and robbed the house of $230.

Sunday in New Brunswick was the coldest so far this season in that province, the thermometer early in the morning registering in St. John 14° below zero; at Fredericton 10° and at Moncton 24° below.

The mayor of Toronto, Canada, has called a public meeting for Tuesday night, to consider the distress prevalent among the tenantry of Ireland, and devise measures for practical and immediate relief thereof.

Judge Abner Hazletine, aged eighty-six, probably the oldest practicing lawyer in New York State, died at Jamestown, N. Y. Saturday. He was a member of Congress in 1832-34. He practiced until a week ago.

The steamship Syria, when leaving New Orleans yesterday, became unmanageable and drifted heavily against the ships Gettysburg and Screamer, badly damaging both vessels. The Syria was slightly damaged by the shock.

In the wrestling match at Montreal, Canada, Saturday evening, between J. C. Dally, the Irish champion, and Duncan C. Ross, of America, for a belt and a medal valued at $1,000, Ross was the winner, gaining three falls out of five.

Seymour G. Stone's shoddy mill, at Bennington, Vt., was burned Saturday. Loss $5,000. Mr. Stone was fatally and two workmen were seriously burned. Mr. Stone died soon after, and his wife became a raving maniac.

D. A. Randolph, a real estate broker, of Topeka, Kansas, arrested for forgery, was permitted to go into his office, ostensibly to consult with his attorney, Saturday, and while there shot himself through the head with a pistol.

A statement issued by the bureau of statistics shows that the total value of the exports of domestic provisions and tallow from the United States for the month of November, 1879, was $8,700,706, and during the same period in 1878 $9,690,482.

A cold wave struck Syracuse, N. Y., Saturday, and sent the mercury down to 12 degrees below zero, but it subsequently rose to 4 degrees below zero. Twelve freight trains were stalled between Clyde and Syracuse by the extreme cold.

Rev. E. P. Hammond, the revivalist, accompanied by a number of preachers of London, Ontario, and a band of ladies and children who sing hymns, are visiting the hotels and saloons and holding prayer meetings. They are politely received in all cases.

Two brick houses in course of erection at Wilmington, Del., fell Saturday, burying five men and a boy in the ruins. Among them were Charles Ruth and Lewis Lynch, Jr. All were extricated alive, but it is feared Ruth and Lynch will die.

The first regular train over the Boston, Hoosac Tunnel and Western railroad reached North Adams, Mass., Saturday at 12:05 p. m., well loaded with passengers, and was enthusiastically received. The road is now fully opened for traffic.

At a caucus of the Republican members of the Tennessee Legislature, Saturday night, they adopted a resolution recognizing the State debt as a paramount issue, and they would support no proposition looking to repudiation, and condemning the spirit of repudiation at home or abroad.

Miss Payne, of St. Paul, Minnesota, put her cigarette into her pocket to prevent some sudden callers from seeing it, and was set on fire and nearly burned to death in consequence. A burning cigar is no fitting ornament for the mouth of a young lady, but it is even less appropriately disposed of in her pocket.

On Thursday morning last Mrs. Cora Nourse, of New York, when making her toilet missed her false teeth, and came to the conclusion that during her sleep she had swallowed them. She inquired the result in case her fears proved true, and was informed the result would certainly prove fatal. She hastened to the hospital and the physicians there told her that she could not possibly have swallowed her teeth. She became satisfied and started home, but she died soon after from complete exhaustion of her mental faculties, brough about by force of imagination.

The first jury composed exclusively of colored men ever impanneled in Ohio was summoned before the Common Pleas Court at Circleville, Ohio, Saturday, in the case of Adolphus Hazelwood vs. Robert Cole, both colored. The court room was crowded with spectators to watch the behavior of the colored jurors, who were, however, robbed of the chance of rendering a verdict, as the trial developed a record liable to land the plaintiff in the county jail for perjury, when his counsel withdrew the cause.

Gas Stocks Tumbling.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The prices of gas stocks depreciated yesterday on receipt of the news of Edison's discoveries in cheap electric lighting.

THE MAINE MUDDLE.

TWO GOVERNORS AND TWO LEGISLATURES.

Blaine and his Colleagues Counseled to Resist to the Last—Presidential Interference Required.

Washington Star, 23d.

Telegrams were sent hence yesterday to Senator Blaine and other prominent Republicans in Maine to resist to the last what is alleged to be the illegal action of Governor Garcelon and his council in counting out enough Republicans, claiming to have been legally elected, to give a majority of the legislative branch to the fusionists. A telegram sent last night to Senator Hamlin read in substance: "General Garfield advises resistance even to the extent of force. Mr. Garfield saw the President to-day, and he says the President will recognize a Davis legislature if it is set up as the legal legislature of Maine by the Republicans."

It is known that General Garfield and other prominent Republicans are at work looking up the law and precedent to sustain the formation of a legislature by the Republicans.

A CASE IN POINT.

A case has been found which, it is thought, adapts itself to the Maine situation. In the December term of the United States Supreme Court in 1848, Chief Justice Taney (Democrat) presiding, Mr. Taney rendered a decision in the celebrated Luther vs. Borden suit. The defendant had justified an action of trespass, on the ground that "martial law had been declared by the legislature of Rhode Island, and he being a military officer and acting under the orders of his superior officer, as he lawfully might, &c."

"The Chief Justice in the published syllabus of the decision rendered is quoted as follows: "Upon a question whether the government which declared martial law was the duly constituted government of the State it was held that the circuit court had no power to try and determine this question, which so far as the United States was concerned, belonged to the political and not the judicial power; and so far as the State was concerned, having been decided by the highest court, the State, acting as the government of the State when admitted to be duly constituted, the circuit court was bound to follow the decision.

Congress has delegated to the President, by the act of February 28th, 1795, the power to decide, for the purpose of that act, whether a government organized in a State is the duly constituted government of that State; and after he has decided the question the courts of the United States are bound to follow his decision. The government of a State by its Legislature, has the power to protect itself from destruction by armed rebellion by declaring martial law, and the legislature is the sole judge of the existence of the necessary exigency."

THE REPUBLICAN TACTICS.

It is claimed by Republicans who proclaim that Governor Garcelon's outrage shall not be tolerated that the plan in Maine will be as follows: That when the day for the meeting of the Maine legislature arrives, that such Republicans as have the certificates of the returning officers, and those who have been counted out, meet and proceed to organize as the legal legislature of Maine. In the mean time, if possible, procure for the counted-out Republicans certificates of election from the supreme court of the State, or failing in that, from the county clerks. If the fusionists organize also, claiming to be the lawful legislature, of course the crisis would be precipitated at once. The further plan is that the Republican legislature proceed to elect Davis as governor. If the fusion members elected either Garcelon or Smith, the situation would be that Maine would have two governors and two legislatures, and then would follow the question of national recognition. A gentleman who had a conversation with the President on this subject, yesterday, says that the President indicated, as the case was presented to him hypothetically, that he would recognize Davis. Under such a decision, taking the opinion of Chief Justice Taney heretofore quoted as a guide, there could be but one result of such recognition on the part of the fusion governor and legislature, and that would be for them to disband; for the President, under the Taney constitution of the act of February 28, 1795, (1 statutes at large,) has "the power to decide for the purposes of that act whether a government organized in a State is the duly constituted government of that State; and after he has decided this question the courts of the United States are bound to follow his decision."

WHAT WILL HAPPEN.

If, then, the Maine Legislature should attempt to set at defiance the national recognition, the Legislature recognized could call upon the President for national aid to disperse the Legislature which was denied recognition. The statutes of 1795, in respect to such a condition of affairs, read as follows: "And in case of an insurrection in any State against the government thereof, it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, on application of the Legislature of said State or of the executive, (when the Legislature cannot be conveyed), to call for such number of the militia of any other State or States, as may be applied for, as he may deem sufficient to suppress such insurrection."

THE PRESIDENT MUST SETTLE IT.

It will be seen, therefore, that the matter after all is with the President to decide which is the legal Legislature of Maine in case two bodies set up their claims. All the recent advices from Maine point conclusively to the fact that the Republicans feel themselves outraged at Governor Garcelon's action and do not propose to submit to it. The great probability is, therefore, that within the next three weeks the President will be called upon to decide upon the claims of the contending factions, and that the Maine muddle will become one of national importance.

STATE NEWS.

WAKE.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, Dec. 20.—At 2 o'clock yesterday evening the old college bell announced that the hour had arrived for the junior declamations. It was not long before a number of them were seated on the rostrum, restless to be called, that they might signalize themselves by trying the arts and arguments of oratory. And, Mr. Editor, if the performances of most of them are to be taken as the index of their future success, their names and compositions will be used by future generations, as they are now using the specimens of the eloquence of other days. After a few well timed suggestions upon the manner and object of declamation by our much loved President, the exercises closed until 7 o'clock.

At the above mentioned hour we were again summoned to the college chapel to hear the orations of the senior class. While the students' string band discoursed sweet music, seven of the class (some having been excused) came and were seated on the rostrum. Dr. Pritchard, in his usual happy style, introduced as the first speaker of the evening, Mr. J. M. Davis, of Hendersonville; subject: "The Intellectual Man." This gentleman told us before something about the physical man, and in following this time with the intellectual man, by good argument, earnest delivery and well conceived thought, showed us that he was well acquainted with his subject.

Next speaker, Mr. W. T. Jones, of Wilmington; subject: "Devotion to our Country's Cause." This gentleman gave a clear, concise, well-written speech, and in such a manner as to remind us of the days when Webster, Clay, and others, were battling for their country's cause.

Mr. W. B. Waff, of Reynoldson, was next introduced. Subject: "Onward the Language of Creation." In modest, unaffected, yet polished and refined manner, he proved conclusively that everything was progressive; and his speech showed that he believed what he said.

Fourth Speaker, Mr. J. T. Alderman, Sampson county. Subject: "Mathematics." Mr. Alderman delivered in his easy style an oration demonstrating a combination of fine analytical powers, with indisputable logical abilities, and affording pleas of a high grade to those who had not only stood upon the border, but had gone into the interior, of this "fair field of science." Each effort of this gentleman proves him to be a man of native talent, and by his quiet and unassuming manner he shows that he would "rather be than seem to be."

Mr. M. A. Jones, of Apex, was the next speaker. After the "Gloom comes the Gleam" was announced as his subject. Although he had been indisposed for a week or more, and was at the time hardly able to appear with his class, no one could have detected it from the manner in which he rendered his speech. He acquitted himself handsomely in his pleasing style of eloquence. His oration, replete with beauty of thought and richness of expression (for beauty and sublimity of thought seem to come at his bidding), showed a selection of words and an arrangement of sentences not usually met with in the productions of the average student. Mr. Jones, as well as some other members of the class, is making quite a success of his college course.

Sixth speaker, Mr. B. H. Phillips, of Johnston county; subject: "The Bright Side of Life." He handled his subject admirably, and showed that he had given it thought and attention. He really made us believe that nearly all of life could and ought to be bright.

The last speaker was Mr. W. G. Ferebee, of Camden county: subject: "Genius Makes its own Way and Carries its own Lamp." In a most elegant manner, and with the earnestness and tact of the orator, he proved what had been announced as his theme. The audience was much edified, and the expectations of his friends were not disappointed.

Dr. Pritchard then gave an invitation to the literary halls, and said that the order of exercise would be "private talking." Judging from appearance, this part of the programme was not neglected. X.

FORSYTHE.

WINSTON, Dec. 22.—The weather is cold and rainy, promising a very unpleasant time for Christmas.

Business is decidedly good.

Breaks in the warehouses are very large and prices run high.

Work on the buildings, despite the cold, unpleasant weather is going forward with a vim.

It seems to be difficult to learn what kind of amusement our people will engage in during the holidays. The young gents of the two towns speak of having a grand "constituted" ball at the Salem Hotel soon.

The usual musical entertainment came off at the Salem Female Academy, last Thursday night, and is said to have been good. The inclement weather prevented many from attending, and among these your correspondent, much to his regrets.

Our notions stores are doing a fine business. One merchant who thought he had purchased entirely too many notions for the demand, finds that he could sell three times the amount if he had them. Many others, doubtless, find it similar.

This morning, a long, lank, lean man, with rape and rats-bane in his looks, and murder in his eye, entered the room of your correspondent, carrying a double-barreled shot gun in one hand and a heavy club in the other, having two repeaters in his belt, and the handle of a bowie-knife and a copy of the NEWS projecting from his breast-pocket. He leaned his gun against our desk, and slowly drawing the paper from his pocket and unfolding it, laid it before us, and said, "are you the feller what writes for this 'ere paper?"

We answered in the affirmative, brightening up at the same time, hoping to obtain a subscription.

Straightening up at full height—nearly seven feet—he exclaimed in thunder tones: "My name is Tom Shanter, and I can lick the man what writ that before forty gods can skin a minner." He swore that he had never run from man or demons, and would die forty times before he would do it.

We assured him it was a misprint, and that what we wrote was not "Tom Shanter," but Tam O'Shanter, "Tam" being the man's name, "O" being a contraction for of, and "Shanter" the name of a town. Not, however, till we produced a duplicate of our manuscript and a copy of Burns' poems, did we quiet his agitation and smooth the fury of his spirits. We promised to have it corrected in the next issue, failing in which he swore he would wade a sea of blood, climb a stack of wild cats forty feet high, and turn the NEWS office up-side down and scalp every typo. Tell your typos please to be particular, as we are at the seat of war while they are in bomb proofs.

The young gents of Madison are to have a tournament this week.

Christmas trees are in process of erection in many of the private residences, both town and country, as well as in some of the Sabbath schools.

How Our Eastern Railroads Were Built.

Raleigh Observer.

A part of the money so received (by gifts from the National Treasury) by North Carolina was used to purchase stock in eastern railroads, which in this way did not cost the people of the State anything in the shape of taxes. We do not understand, for instance, that the people ever paid any taxes whatever toward the building of the Wilmington and Weldon, or the Wilmington and Manchester, or the Raleigh and Gaston Railroads.

Nor, indeed, have they ever paid anything to speak of for the building of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, or the North Carolina Railroad. For these, it is true, bonds were issued to the latter road, they will probably never be paid by the State; while those issued for stock in the former are scaled down very low, and will not be any great tax upon the people.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS IN ALL FORMS AND STYLES.

What to Get and Where to Get Them—The Articles our Merchants have Procured.

In accordance with the announcement made in yesterday morning's issue of the NEWS, the Christmas Directory is continued. There are many of our heavy grocers whose stock can hardly be considered as Christmas goods. The NEWS will pay attention to them at another time. Our object is to assist in building up the trade of the city as far as the efforts of one journal can do it, and the NEWS presumes that the other city papers are heartily willing to assist in the enterprise. More of this directory should have appeared in yesterday's issue, but unfortunately the copy was mislaid and the fact was not discovered until too late to rectify it. The first to which attention is directed are the

SEWING MACHINES.

At No. 18 Fayetteville street are located the parlors of J. L. Stone, agent for the "New Home," and it would appear as if he appropriated the title of his machines for his rooms. They are beautifully furnished, and callers musically inclined can seat themselves at a piano or organ and indulge their passion to their hearts' content. The first floor, as stated before, is finely furnished, with machines and organs and pianos ranged in order, and the parlor upstairs is like unto it. Mr. Stone's sales average about one hundred machines a month.

A world-wide favorite is the "Singer," and the agent, Mr. Sievers, may be found at No. 12 Fayetteville street. The number of machines manufactured by this company is far in excess of that of any other company. This machine, it will be remembered, took the award at the last State Fair.

Another household favorite is the "Wheeler and Wilson," at No. 11 Fayetteville street, J. B. Myer, agent. His rooms are well stocked, and those who desire this style of machine will find Miss Lizzie Sheen ready to explain its workings.

MILLINERY AND LADIES' FANCY WARE.

Whoever visits the sales rooms of Isaac Ettinger can hardly fail to be impressed with the amount of little pieces of wear that it takes to embellish a belle of the period. Hats of the latest styles, trimming silks, satins, lace fichus, collarettes, jabots, scarfs and ties, embroidered sets of collars and cuffs, linen sets in fancy boxes, and handkerchiefs—lace, hemstitched, fine embroidered and scalloped bordered—anything in fact that a lady can put upon her head, or around her neck or waist, or put in her pocket.

Madam Besson, at the corner of Salisbury and Martin streets, has a fine assortment as well as a large stock of ladies' and children's furnishing goods. These all come in the useful line of Christmas presents.

Mrs. W. T. Lane, No. 7 Fayetteville street, has an extra fine stock, consisting of fashionable millinery, fancy goods, laces, ruffs, handkerchiefs, artificial flowers, and misses' and children's hats.

Mrs. M. A. Hardie, at No. 24 Fayetteville street, exhibits a beautifully decorated show window, which is but a sample of the wares within. There is but little use enumerating the various styles of goods as they have already been recounted above.

CHRISTMAS BILL OF FARE.

One of the pleasures of Christmas is the dinner. From the time of William the Conqueror down the Anglo-Saxon race has prided itself on its holiday dinners, chiefest among which is the banquet following the Church services. There are so many vendors of edibles that it is hard to discriminate, and on that day they depart from their established line and exhibit poultry for inspection and subsequent sale. But the grocers! that much lauded and and abused tribe, who are accused of sanding their sugar and watering their vinegar! Without them a Christmas feast would be an indifferent one.

Commencing at the Capitol and working southward, is the wonderful window display of the Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach. In one is piled up in fine array Fruit Preserves, consisting of glasses of strawberry, pineapple, the various berries and cherries in marmalades and jellies. In the lower window stand the canned fruit of all varieties and in all shapes, beautifully set off by a ground work of Malaga grapes and other seasonable fruits. On entering the store, ranged outside the counters may be found fruits both tropical and semi-tropical—oranges, lemons, figs, apples, pears, etc., and in the spice boxes are the condiments that please the palate when added to the substantials. For the sake of the children, we suppose, although there are few clerks but what possess that curious article known as a "sugar tooth," are cases of confectionery that would tempt the most abstemious Grahamite in existence. But all should call and see for themselves.

E. J. Hardin reaches out his hand and store for a welcome word. Jamaica and Florida oranges, orange marmalade and all the other "goodies" may be found at this store in abundance. And as for fancy groceries, there is not a store in the State that can excel him. What is a Christmas dinner without a royal mince pie? and right here you will find the mince meat already cut and prepared, and we will venture the assertion that made up and baked the reader could not tell it from home made. To add to the zest of the dinner many want their wine, and Mr. Hardin has every description from cooking wines to choice sherries and champagnes. Chickens and fire-crackers, ducks and demijohns, geese and gooseberries, may all be obtained. But boys, don't forget the fire-crackers.

And so we might go on with the grocers, but their names are legion. There is M. Grausman, Fleming Bates, Redford & Arendell, and many other light grocers.

F. B. Hill, at the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets, has a neat assortment of everything that pertains to Christmas cookery. Preserves, jellies, marmalades, and all the nice things that have heretofore been recounted. But his stock of wines and liquors is most excellent. The B-Select whisky, a Richmond brand, is generally admired for medical use, and as medicine it doesn't go bad. A fine article of Scuppernong wine is kept constantly on hand, together with some splendid eight-year old brandy from the noted Tokay vineyard near Fayetteville. Mr. Hill has gained a reputation for the excellence of the wines he keeps in store, and he well deserves it. For after dinner cheer at "Merry Christmas-tide" the attention of convivialists is invited. Choice brands of cigars may also be found at his establishment.

PICTURES AND FRAMES.

C. C. Clawson has an assortment of chromos, mottoes, panels, plagues, etc., and plenty of material to put the whole of Raleigh in a gilt frame. How many people have stopped in front of his windows and looked at the burlesques of the dog teams and certain attendant mishaps? Elegant pictures handsomely framed make acceptable presents.

Mr. T. A. Hunt, so well and favorably known throughout the South, having disposed of his business, we cannot speak as to his successor except in a general way—that is, he must be a good artist to fill the place of his predecessor. G. W. Steward and H. Murphy will undoubtedly have their rooms filled with those desirous of securing "the fleeting shadow."

SHOES AND SLIPPERS.

Half a century ago if a young lady wished to make her lover a present she would bend her energies most assiduously in the direction of a worked pair of slippers, spending weeks of time on their fabrication. Now she can buy equally as handsome ones at any regular shoe store much cheaper than she could make them. But two houses in the city pay exclusive attention to the shoe trade, namely the Heller Brothers and C. D. Heartt. They appear to be equally well provided in the line of fine boots, shoes, hats, etc. At the Heller Brothers displayed in the show case are some elegant ladies' "gondolas" and fine shoes, as well as children's. There are toy trunks and toy shoes, and the five cent counter is an institution.

The dry goods merchants will be taken up to-morrow.

LATE STATE NOTES.

Chapel Hill Ledger.

The colored people of the Methodist church have realized by their festivals, some $28 toward buying a bell for the church.

Mr. John Huskey killed on Tuesday last three hogs which had an aggregate weight of nine hundred pounds. They were all from the same litter and were only nineteen months old.

We note in some of our exchanges that some Chapel Hill belles are creating sensations in various parts of the State where they are visiting. Send 'em back; we are trembling for their fate.

President Battle informs us that on Wednesday night he witnessed a very brilliant meteor, almost the size of a hat, shoot east of south about twenty degrees above the horizon. We shall call on him for a meteoric shower soon.

The only man in Durham who subscribed to the University Railroad was Julian S. Carr. He gave $500. This gentleman never fails to do all he can for the University and Chapel Hill, and we with all our readers, join in wishing him a long life and a well-filled treasury. He gave the $500 unconditionally. The prospects now are that the road will run to some point near University Station. Will the people of Durham allow this?

A very serious accident occured on New Hope, about five miles from Chapel Hill, on Thursday last. Mr. W. G. Bowers was cutting down a tree, which in falling, lodged in the forks of another tree. He ascended the one which he had cut, for the purpose of dislodging it when it slipped, breaking his right thigh, left arm, and mangling his left hand in a terrible manner. Drs. A. B. Roberson and J. C. Patterson were called in and administered the necessary medical treatment. They report him out of danger and doing well.

The Western North Carolina Railroad.

Charlotte Observer, 23d.

Trustworthy information reaches the Observer that responsible capitalists in New York city propose to take the Western North Carolina Railroad off the hands of the State. The proposition includes:

1st. The assumption of all debts and liabilities now due by the road as well as all obligations incurred by the State in the purchase of the road as it now stands, to-wit: $850,000.

2d. The completion of the road to Paint Rock and Ducktown by 1880 and 1884 respectively, and issuing to the State $500,000 in the bonds of the new company.

The usual guarantees about the execution of the agreement, and protection to the people in the matter of freights, etc., is provided for in the proposition now pending.

The proposition substantially as indicated will shortly be submitted to governor Jarvis, and if entertained favorably by him he will convene the Legislature in extraordinary session to act upon it.

The Observer is a news-paper and gives this statement as a rumor with a very plausible foundation. With our present information we cannot express an opinion as to whether or not the proposition ought to be accepted. When it comes up for decision we have no doubt of the wisdom of the Governor and his council, and if approved by him the Legislature when assembled will look well to the interests of both thr railroad and the State.

Unselfishly Next Summer.

Charlotte Democrat.

We think that next summer all our Editorial brethren will be prepared to discuss in an unselfish manner, the questionable propriety and justice and right of further State appropriations to Railroads, in view of the fact that many counties have done their duty to their own people and interests by heavily taking themselves to build railroads, not asking the State at large for help.

From the Banks of the Hudson.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Oct. 20.—H. W. WARNER & CO., ROCHESTER, N. Y.—Gentlemen; "A lady of over seventy years of age, in failing health for over a year, has been using Warner's Safe Bitters on my recommendation. She feels very grateful for the benefit she has derived therefrom, and says that until she used it her stomach could bear no vegetable food for over three years. I believe it to be a certain specific for dyspepsia.

J. T. JOSLYN, M. D.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upward of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do RISE UP and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DAILY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No MOTHER has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

THE CZAR'S ESCAPE.

THE CLEVER PERFORMANCE OF NIHILIST ENGINEERS.

How they Burrowed Under a Railroad to Blow the Czar into Limitless Space.

London Standard, 8th.

At last Russian letters and papers are allowed to convey further details relative to the terrible incident of the 1st instant. Though at a distance of two miles from the station, the spot where the attempt was made is situate in a densely inhabited part of the suburbs. In September one of the wooden cottages commanding the railway, one hundred and sixty feet distant from the metals, was purchased by a young man professing to be an artisan from Samara. He was evidently in a hurry to close and without any bargaining paid the 250 paper roubles asked by the proprietor. Immediately after he moved into the house, accompanied by a young woman and two associates. He held little intercourse with his neighbors and led a quiet and retired life. His furniture was scanty and his food supplied by the poorest shops in the neighborhood. On rare occasions when a messenger or neighbor entered the house lamps were seen burning before the sacred images and the walls were found covered with portraits of the emperor and empress, as befits an orthodox Russian.

About the middle of October the new tenants commenced to sink a well in their court-yard, telling the neighbors that they required a large quantity of water for trade purposes. As has since come out, the well was only sunk to account for the quantities of sand removed from a shaft dug in a wooden shed forming part of the premises. This shaft was driven to the depth of five feet. From the bottom of the shaft a subterranean passage was bored in the direction of the railway, the sand being placed in the court-yard and some of the cottage rooms. This passage was one hundred and sixty feet long and about three feet high. It was scientifically constructed, bricked throughout, and where it reached the side of the embankment widened into a spacious hole for the reception of the explosive material. For the latter pyroxiline seems to have been selected. Being placed at the destined spot a little time before the Imperial train was due, it seems to have frozen in the severe cold of the last few days, which accounts for the comparatively small mischief done. From the pyroxiline a wire was laid down to an electric battery constructed on the most primitive principles, and placed in the wooden shed in the court-yard.

While the Emperor, who, thanks to an irversion of the usual order of the trains, had passed the fatal spot unscathed, was paying homage before the wooden statue of the Virgin at the Kremlin gate, the second train reached the spot opposite the miner's house and was blown into the air. Those of the railway servants who escaped unhurt, who immediately ran to the next telegraph station to inform the police, but the wires were cut all round and it was an hour before the first constables appeared on the scene. No trace of the criminals was detected, the only evidence left being the battery and a morsel of food.

As no one dared to acquaint the Emperor with what had occurred, his Majesty learned the incident only on the following morning. Two more days elapsed before the St. Petersburg press were permitted to allude to the event.

The labor expended by the conspirators in digging the Moscow mine is truly astonishing. Taking the length of the subterranean passage at the figures given above, the earth dug out cannot have weighed less than 12,000 hundred weights. If we assume five minutes to be required for three men to dig out and bring to the surface a quantity weighing forty pounds, 2,800 hours, some four months, must have been needed to construct the entire passage. Even this gives no idea of the amount of work done. It being alleged that the entire passage, as well as the cavern at its termination, was bricked, no fewer than 12,000 bricks can have been wanted to accomplish this work. To perform it without light or air for a length of 160 feet must have been no trifling matter. Again, as it cannot have taken less than fifty wagons to convey the bricks to the revolutionary cottage the cunning of its denizens in achieving the exploit without arousing suspicion is one of the most marvelous features of the case. Nor are the art and tact displayed in the arrangement of the mine to be lost sight of. Where the soil consisted of loose sand, the gallery, according to the most approved technical rules, was supported by boards maintained by triangular frames which could not have been brought to the spot without carts and horses. If I add that the passage terminated at five feet from the railway embankment, as to carry it under the embankment might have caused some train to break in before the time appointed, the reader will be able to conceive the prodigious amount of work and talent devoted to the undertaking. From these and similar circumstances, not a few Russians are led to imagine that there is more in this subterranean matter than appears on the surface.

Penitentiary Matters.

The shoe shop at the Penitentiary is turning out good work at present, ranging from fine shoes to coarse brogans. About a year ago the foreman, Mr. Wilson, commenced work with two hands and now he has a large shop full, turning out about one hundred pairs a day of all classes of work. The men are worked in teams, similar to the plan pursued in the large shoe factories at the North and the best machinery is used. The system now pursued at the penitentiary is yet in its infancy but is making rapid strides toward perfection, and as fast as other trades can be made available the convicts will be put at remunerative inside labor. The present management in this respect reflects credit on Colonel Hicks and Captain Marsh, and when other trades are established they will be fortunate if they engage as able men as Mr. Wilson to manage the different shops. The general work is going bravely on; the walls are going up steadily, and wherever improvements can be made for the benefit of the convicts as well as the State they are speedily attended to.

Colonel Hicks also announces that sealed proposals will be received for the hiring out of from one hundred to one hundred and fifty convicts to be worked inside the prison inclosure. They will be let in such numbers and worked at such mechanical trades as the bidders may desire to conduct in the prison. This plan has been pursued in the State prison at Auburn, N. Y., with unvarying success, and therefore it may not be considered as a mere experiment of the warden. The three State prisons of New York are nearly self-sustaining and a heavy draft on the State Treasury is thus avoided.

DAILY NEWS

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THIS being Christmas time and the paper loaded down with advertising, our readers must excuse the scant amount of editorial. And it is only fair to presume that they are as glad to be rid of reading it as we are of writing it.

THE Democrats of Ohio are recovering hope and have no intention of surrendering the State to the Republicans. They will probably begin the next canvass early in the year. A meeting of the State committees is called for the 2d day of January.

THE Governor of Missouri has ordered an election on the 10th of January to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Lay. The district is strongly Democratic, so much so, in fact, that it is doubtful if the Republicans will contest it. Their strongest man declines positively to be a candidate.

AND this is the way we are drifting. The President has set himself up as an expounder of Constitutional laws, for it is stated that he said in conversation a day or two ago that he believed that under the Constitution the Vice President of the United States had the right to count and declare the Presidential vote, and whether he counted it and declared it in the rotunda of the Capitol or in presence of both houses of Congress in joint convention assembled that he should recognize and enforce it as the true and legal declaration of the court.

THE Lumberton Robesonian on the 2d of January will enter upon the eleventh volume of its career. It is well conducted and exercises an undoubted influence for good in the stamping ground of the old Lowery gang. Its proprietor, in speaking of the future prospects of the paper, adopts the good business rule of cash in advance, and says:

The patronage of the paper is increasing as rapidly as time moves, both in circulation and in advertising, while our job patronage has more than doubled itself within the last twelve months. Our blank trade alone is very large, and our patrons extend over four counties. Our job office is one of the largest and best equipped in the State.

It is our purpose during the next year, to return to the good old rule of requiring cash in advance from all of our subscribers. We intend to publish a paper, that will be richly worth the money, and we shall expect it before a name goes on our mailing books.

THE New York Tribune editorially avows its dislike of General Grant's persistent reticence on the question of a Presidential nomination, and thinks the time is come when he should speak. It says among other things that "he has preserved a dignified silence thus far, while the whole country has been guessing at his intentions. The time has perhaps come when true dignity requires speech rather than silence. It may be said that he can neither accept nor refuse a nomination until it has been offered him. But though the nomination is yet uncertain, the candidacy for the nomination has already gone very far, and General Grant, either with or without his consent, has been made one of the foremost competitors. In a case of this kind silence will not only be interpreted as an acceptance, but silence is an acceptance. General Grant cannot honorably allow his friends to make such extraordinary exertions for him, and then, at the last moment, in case of something better offering, throw them over, with a protest that they acted without his authority."

THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday makes the startling announcement that the Western North Carolina Railroad is looked upon with such favor that some northern capitalists propose purchasing the road and relieve the State from all further responsibilities and expense.

This is an unexpected turn in affairs, and for the sake of the tax-payers we say we are heartily glad of it. Whether or no the capitalists spoken of will make it a success we cannot say. We will not throw the first straw in their way. If their views are correct, and they can make the line self-supporting, so much the better for the State and the people. But there is something back of all this. The purchase of the road will not be consummated on the mere assumption that the road is to be an immediate paying one—or for that matter that it will pay in a century. If it is to be purchased it is with the intention that it will form part and parcel of a continuous line, or else with a policy well known and understood by certain companies North, to gain control for the purpose of smothering it to the advantage of other roads. If it is to form part of a continuous line from the west to the east with Beaufort as a shipping terminus it will be conducted in such a manner as the existing company, with its comparatively small means, could not hope to do, and this will prove an advantage to the State without the present attending expense. If the road is to be smothered by different lines, why, it is no more than it will be under the present management.

That there is some ulterior object—always made and provided that the negotiations mentioned by the Observer are in progress—may be understood by the fact that during the past two months railroad gobbling and line scalping has been busily going on in Tennessee and Georgia. At the present moment we have not the data at hand or the time to view the matter as closely as we could desire.

If the rumor is true all we have to say is, "Go ahead, gentlemen, and deliver the property-holders from the burdens of unequal taxation."

The Largest Bale.

Charlotte Observer.

Perhaps the heaviest bale of cotton ever marketed in Charlotte was sold here yesterday by Captain S. E. White, of Fort Mill, S. C., to Mr. Hyder Ratterree, representing Messrs. J. M. Ivey & Co., of Rock Hill. It weighed all of one thousand and thirty-five pounds, was slightly stained and brought 11 cents per pound. It was a perfect whopper, and it remains to be seen if the compress can reduce it to the proportions of an ordinary sized bale.

No More Hard Times.

If you will stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing, get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive quack doctors, or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, but put your trust in that simple, pure remedy, Hop Bitters, that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see good times and have good health. See another column.*

A Card.

All who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago, believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs. —— of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day.

E. P. DAGGETT.
MILFORD, ME., June 10, 1878.

NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET,

Is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome Skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain under the shoulderblade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, Headache generally over the right eye, Restlessness with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. I. Guy Lewis, Fulton, Ark., says:
"After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-bilious medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Osgood, New York, says:
"I have had Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and Nervousness. I never had any medicine to do me so much good as TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

VEST POCKET CURE
25 DYSPEPSIA 25
CLERGY & DOCTORS TESTE

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.) It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D., Col. Va.
It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward, P. E., Na. Conf. About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Failing in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va. I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va. It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whoe list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in familie from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate. This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seon Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——No northern mail last night.

——Internal revenue receipts yesterday $6,949.22.

——Business at the capitol yesterday might be classed as fairly dull.

——Cotton: Middling 11⅞. Number of bales 110. Tone of market weak.

——Three marriage licenses were issued yesterday by the Register of Deeds.

——To-night is Christmas Eve, an everyone will be aware of it when th boys get around.

——By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. J. P. Prairie desires to sell his farm and city property.

——Sheriff Nowell is having the jail put in order for cold weather, Lumsden's putting up stoves in the different apartments.

——F. B. Hill has a fine stock of scuppernong wine and brandy. The product of the the Tokay vineyard is pronounced unequaled in the State.

——Coroner Richardson seems to be especially favored. Two cases for his action yesterday, thus insuring him fees enough for Christmas spending.

——The funeral of Dr. William Little will take place from Christ Church in this city at 3 o'clock, P. M., on Thursday the 25th. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

——In another column will be found a notice relative to the loss of a bay mare and a rockaway carriage; the last seen of them they were standing in front of the Salisbury street Baptist church.

——Nothing before the Mayor this morning but a colored boy charged with indecent behavior. His Honor prescribed a good flogging, and the boy will be apt to behave himself for a few days.

——On the second page of this issue will be found the column advertisement of Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach. With two stores in full blast they will undoubtedly do their full share toward supplying the wants of our citizens.

——The column advertisement of E. J. Hardin on the second page will be found useful as well as ornamental reading. Some items were left out, such as apples, oranges, lemons, cigars, chickens, ducks, geese and turkeys, and last but not least, that is, in the estimation of the boys, fire-crackers.

——Another instalment of the Christmas Directory is furnished this morning. By some chance the firm of Stronach & Belo was left out, so a statement of what they are doing will be given here. They propose to sell poultry at the lowest price, and their arrangements have been made in such manner as to insure a supply of fresh turkeys, ducks, chickens, etc., daily. A fine lot of apples is in their store and will attract the attention of customers. Give them a call.

——When the wicked pirate destroyed the warning bell placed off Inchcape by the good monks of Aberbrothick, he thought, and thought well, that if their good offices were to be continually thwarted in that manner, they would get disheartened and throw up the job. But there is one thing certain, that if the abbot had but known of the wild cow with the bell that roams about the street night and day, he could have procured an article warranted to wear; for neither can water drown her or storms frighten her; her hide is impervious to revolver bullets; she would have whipped Darius' elephants in fifteen minutes by the clock. As she moves adown the street she espys a box of goods or a barrel of mackerel; she gives it a toss with her horns and proceeds to investigate the contents with all the leisure imaginable. She should be sold to the United States for army purposes—then the Utes would have to "git."

Married.

At the residence of the bride's father, December 23d, by Rev. Dr. J. B. Bobbitt, Mr. W. H. Creech and Miss Sophronia Gattis.

Cotton.

The market opened on yesterday at 11 3-4 to 11 7-8 basis middling, but owing to decline in New York, closed at 11 1-2 to 11 5-8, basis middling. The receipts were very light, only some fifty bales.

Masonic.

At the election of officers for William G. Hill Lodge No. 28, F. & A. M., Monday evening, the following named gentlemen were chosen: W. M., John Weir; S. W., J. C. L. Harris; J. W., John Armstrong; Sec., W. P. Wetherell; Treas., William Simpson; Tiler, Miles Goodwin.

"Blockade" Stills.

On Monday, general deputies Sorrel and Moore, of the revenue department, made a foray in this county. They having learned that illicit distilling was going on in the neighborhood of Apex, concluded to pay a visit in that direction. Their search was successful, they capturing a still of the capacity of about sixty-five gallons. The owners had just finished a doubling. Ten tubs, containing about two hundred gallons of beer were captured and destroyed.

The Fair at Metropolitan Hall.

The inclement weather has prevented many of our citizens from attending the ladies' fair, and the crowds have not been large, but the entertainment has nevertheless been a very pleasant one. The Hall is quite attractive; beautifully arranged tables, laden with a great variety of useful and ornamental articles which are offered for sale at very low prices. The generosity of our citizens in aiding this enterprise so very liberally is certainly commendable. The table of eatables is laden with turkeys, chickens, oysters, etc., etc. The cake table is beautiful and the ladies in charge of it deserve great credit. Professor Eastburn, the best ventriloquist that has ever visited Raleigh, entertained the audience for some time by his talk and tricks. The Art exhibition is also a great attraction; go and see for yourselves. The cause is a good one, let all help.

Dr. William Little.

After a brief illness this worthy man died at his residence in this city yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Dr. Little was a son of Colonel George Little and a native of Raleigh. He was born in July, 1838, and was consequently in his forty-first year. He was prepared for college by Mr. J. M. Lovejoy, of this place, and graduated at Chapel Hill about 1856 or '57 when he commenced the study of medicine and received his diploma in 1859 or '60. He served during the entire war as Assistant Surgeon at the Pettigrew Hospital, and many a sick and wounded soldier can bear testimony to his skill and gentleness. After the war he spent one or two years in the practice of his profession in Central America. Returning to his native town he resumed the practice, and in 1870 married Margaret, the daughter of Henry Mordecai, who with four sons mourn his loss. He was an upright man, a dutiful son and a kind husband. Peace to his ashes.

Lectures at St. Mary's.

On Monday, the 29th instant, Professor Daves will give the first of a series of three lectures at the School. The proceeds are to be given to the poor of Raleigh, and at this season when a little outlay will make so many hearts glad, it is hoped that the people of the city will respond, and the more liberally inasmuch as the double object gives them more than an equivalent for their money.

Tickets for the lectures can be had at the bookstore of Alfred Williams & Company.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anamia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

One Experience from Many.

"I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me, they said: 'Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy.'"—The mother.

Dr. Price's Flavorings.

Have grown rapidly in popular favor, as it is known that they are natural flavors, obtained by a new process which gives the most delicate and grateful taste. We consciously commend Dr. Price's flavors as being all that is desired.

Is It Any Wonder.

In view of the immense amount of adulterated baking powders used by the masses of people in food, is it any wonder that there are diseased gums, decayed teeth and disordered digestion? To escape these evils, use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, the only kind made by a physician, with great care.

Practical Economy.

Before Patapsco Baking Powders was patented and placed on the market, consumers had to pay 50 cents per pound for the Old Rut Powders. You can now buy Patapsco for about one-half that amount. This accounts for the popularity of Patapsco.

"Well, there," said Spriggins, as he laid down the New York —— after studying the Weather Department map intently for fifteen minutes: "I am blamed if I believe there is any man living that can make such shots as that on any billiard table in the world."

Pill Box.

I offer for sale my running horse Pill Box, who came from the plow last August, having made a crop, and ran with 2 weeks' handling against trained thoroughbred race horses of reputation, beating them in half mile, mile and two miles races, at the Raleigh and Weldon fairs. He is a bright bay, fine form, and remarkably stylish, and is a most excellent saddle and double harness horse, is (6) six years passed, perfectly sound. Also Flora and Dora, a pair dark bay mares, aged 5 and 6, of beautiful form, a match in color, size, and gait, sound, and not at all afraid of cars—an excellent coach team. And lastly Jack and Jim, a pair of bright bays, 6 and 8 years old. Jack is a bad runaway horse; Jim will not only run but kicks. This team is warranted as represented; special inducements will be offered a buyer. All at J. D. Whitaker's wood, coal and lumber yard, West Hargett St.

Political Issues.

Kearney's advice to all parties is to "pool their issues." We think a good deal as he does, that we should bury the dead issues of the past. As a healing compound for all issues, sores, wounds, &c, there is nothing equal to Henry's Carbolic Salve. Beware of counterfeits.

More of those celebrated Open and Top Buggies, from Davis, Gould & Company.

The best Buggies for the money ever sold in North Carolina.

SATISFACTORILY GUARANTEED FOR TWELVE MONTHS.

Here is what the Manufacturers say:

In construction of our work we use Patent Wheels, Hand-made Wheels, also Sarven's best Patent Wheels. We use only Refined Iron. We use the best of Swede and Norway Iron Bolts. We use the best Oil Tempered Springs, which are all warranted to us. We use the best Case-Hardened Solid Collar Axle Sheldon's make, Anchor brand. We use the best of Top Leather, also Fancy Colored Trimming Leather and best of Cloth. All Top Linings are pure woolen goods, and not half cotton or shoddy. We stitch all Tops by hand, and nail none. We use concealed joints in all Tops. We use Steel Bow Sockets, also Wood Bows. We miter all corners. All wood-work is thoroughly put together. Glue and Screws only being used. We use Hard wood for all Frames. We use the best Seasoned Hickory in all Gearings. In Trimmings we are excelled by none; and in Painting we use Standard Colors, and finish with the best English Varnish.

We claim that we manufacture a better style, and a more superior finished vehicle throughout, for the price, than any other house in the United States. We except none.

All our Top Buggies are made with Shifting Rails, and can be readily changed to Open Buggies. All our Tops are so adjusted as to fit any other like vehicle of our manufacture.

SPECIAL CARD.

We take pleasure in placing our work before you here, showing our advantages over all competitors in Trimming, Painting, Material and Workmanship in general, and giving you an opportunity to purchase a vehicle at much less price than charged by home manufacturers.

All we ask is to give our work a trial, and we feel confident you will agree with us that we give more for the money than any other house in the world.

No vehicle leaves our establishment without our name-plate being attached.
